

Proposed Cellular Tower Location in Calgary Communities

The focused population is from the age of 20-45. Three proposed cellular towers are placed in communities that went through the viewshed analysis, each tower is 20m in height and with a buffer range of 8km. The optimal locations cover areas that consist of 45% or more of the desired population.

